From the Duke of Savoy's Camp at Picigkittone, October 28. N. S.

THis Town ſurrendred yeſterday upon Articles, the Gariſon being allowed to march out with the uſual Marks of Honour, and to be conducted to Cremona; and accordingly all the French Troops in the Place are to march out this day; but the Germans, Swiſs, Italians and Spaniards, have either entred into the Service of the Allies, or deſired Paſſes to return home, few or none of them continuing in French Pay. The Duke of Savoy intends to march from hence to morrow in order to join Prince Eugene, and will leave the Prince of Heſſe with a Body of about 7000 Men, which will be ſufficient to ſecure the Adda, to obſerve the French Troops under General Medavi, and prevent his making any Attempt, while the reſt of our Forces are employed in reducing the Caſtle of Tortona, Cazal and Valenza; in the doing of which we expect no Oppoſition, the Reduction of Alexandria and the Town of Tortona having entirely deprived the Enemy of any Communication with this Country by the way of Genoa, without which it will be very difficult for their Troops to ſubſiſt in theſe Parts: And this Conſideration, with that of the ill State of their Troops, which are now in Dauphine, and the Seaſon's being far advanced, will in all probability prevent their attempting to return into Piedmont.

Genoa, October 31. N. S. The Pope's Gallies that were in this Port ſet Sail this Morning with a fair Wind for Civita-Vecchia. We have an Account from Spain, That the Forces on both ſides are gone into Winter Quarters; and that his Catholick Majeſty intended to call an Aſſembly of the States of Valentia, to meet in the Capital of that Kingdom.

Milan, November 6. The Duke of Savoy is now at Groſpello, between Pavia and Caſal, with the Body of Troops which was employed in the Siege of Picighittone: Since the Surrender of which Place his Royal Highneſs has retaken Aſti: The Gariſon conſiſted of 40 Officers, and 320 private Men, who all ſurrendred themſelves Priſoners of War. Prince Eugene, with the Troops under his Command, continues at Alexandria. Mortara and Valenza are both blocked up by Detachments of the Confederate Troops; but the Weather being very rainy, delays the Execution of his Royal Highneſs's further Deſigns.

Vienna, Nov. 6. The Imperial Forces in Hungary, under the Command of General Staremberg, marched the 2d Inſtant to Little Schizen, where they were joined by General Palfi with the Troops under his Command; and the next Day they advanced to Biesbeck, where they are making a Bridge over the Danube.

Francfort, Nov. 14. Orders are given for ſupplying the Magazines at Landau with conſiderable Quantities of Proviſions and Ammunition; and after that is done, our Troops on the other ſide of the Rhine will repaſs that River, and march into Winter Quarters. The Enemy's Forces are preparing to do the like. Letters from Italy ſay, they have had exceſſive Rains there, which have cauſed the Po and the Secchia to overflow their Banks; and have done a great deal of Damage to the Countries lying near thoſe Rivers.

Hanover, Nov. 18. On Sunday the 14th Inſtant, at 7 in the Evening, the Ceremony of the Marriage between the Prince Royal of Pruſſia and the Princeſs of Hanover was performed with great Solemnity, the Electoral Prince being his Royal Highneſs's Proxy. The Appearance of the Nobility and Perſons of Quality upon this Occaſion was very ſplendid: There was a noble Entertainment, and the great Guns round the Town, with the ſmall Arms of two Battalions which were drawn up before the Gate of the Caſtle, were thrice diſcharged. Her Royal Highneſs ſets out to morrow for Berlin, attended by Lieutenant-General Fink, and ſeveral other Perſons of Quality.

Hague, Nov. 19. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough continues his Conferences with the Deputies of the States General and other Publick Miniſters, and intends to go for England next Week if the Wind permits. The Fleet from London is arrived in the Maeſe, having met with ſtormy Weather at Sea, but ſuffered no great Damage.
